Giving something up for love

- What things are important to you?
- What was important to Jesus?
- What did Jesus give up for love?

We have a copy of 'Dogger' in big book format for short term loan.

Read 'The Big Wave' from Bob Hartman's 'The Storyteller Bedtime Book' or 'Cheer up Chicken'. Both can be used to introduce the subject of self sacrifice. Also look at the story of Albrecht Durer.

Stories from the life of Jesus (Zaccheus, Blind Bartimaeus, calming the storm and events at Easter) are all told well in 'The Storyteller Bible'.

'The Marvellous Picnic' is particularly appropriate for this scheme of work.

Look at 'A Very Special Sunday' Big Book.

Look at the symbolism of palm crosses and hot cross buns.
Visit the Request website for instructions on how to make a palm cross.

Activities

Draw the people or person who was important to Jesus from the stories listed above. Write a sentence to explain what Jesus did to show these people were important; eg Jesus gave the hungry people food to eat.

Make a large cross collage as a class, filling the cross shape with different faces from around the world. This is a SCAMPER activity; see the link for more ideas.

Click here to download a worksheet. Inside the heart shape ask the children to draw something or someone that is important to them.
